Thousands of American tourists yearly gaze at beautiful Windsor castle in England. One of the scenes in Grace Merritt's production of "When Knights Rode Was in Flower" which will be seen here soon, is a magnificent replica of the Windsor castle of four centuries ago. This scene is pronounced by experts to be the most accurate reproduction of an ancient edifice ever seen on the American stage. At the opera house next Friday night.

Robert Honeyford, correspondent from Hardwick to the Vermont Union Signal, wrote his paper this week as follows: "The quarry workers of Woodbury have reached a settlement with the quarry owners, the bill being signed for a 26c minimum as prescribed by the quarry workers. Several minor changes were also made and everything fixed up in good shape, so Hardwick does not expect any trouble this spring as far as new agreements in the granite business are concerned. Everything looks like a busy summer. Hope Barre will reach a settlement before March first, and trust it will be as good or better than the bill running here."

ALTRURIANS AT PLAY.

Fine Evening Spent at Home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Glysson.

A very enjoyable social time was spent by the Altrurians and their friends at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Glysson, 29 Perry street, last evening. At 6:30 o'clock, after the ladies, each of whom represented a state, had succeeded in finding their capital and partner for the dinner, the party was ushered into the spacious dining-room, where cards designated the places assigned to each state at the table. The table was prettily decorated with cut flowers and ferns, and was laden with appetizing viands, to which the company did full justice amid much mirth and story-telling.

The remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent with games and music, and the guests departed, feeling that Mrs. Glysson makes a most genial host and hostess, and that much credit is due the committee having charge of the evening.

TENDERED A RECEPTION.

Miss Emma Phillips Was Also Presented a Material Reminder.

A large number of the friends of Miss Emma Phillips gave her a surprise reception at the church of the Presbyterian church last evening, the occasion being the eve of her departure for New York, where she will reside. An impromptu program was given during the evening and refreshments were served.

Miss Phillips was presented a purse of gold as a token of appreciation of her service in the choir of the church, the presentation being made by Rev. W. C. MacIntyre.

Roads in Barre Town.

Town Road Commissioner E. A. Witham, as shown by the town report, showed very close to the line, having drawn orders in excess of the amount appropriated by only sixty cents. His bills are nearly all paid, including most of the bills for rolling roads this winter, up to the time of settlement with the auditors. This is the first time since Lewis McLeod was road commissioner that the expenditures have not heavily exceeded the amount appropriated by the town.

The More Profitable Pachyderm.

Says Bryan in praise of the Donkey: It's always the friend of the poor. With qualities quite emblematic. Both patient, persistent and sure. And then to the Elephant pointing. He says, with a palpable sneer, That animal isn't as useful. And hasn't got virtues as clear.

Ah Bryan, that view is mistaken. And woeful indeed is your mis. The pachyderm, slandered so basely, Provides as the purest of bliss. Look back to the days of your boyhood: Undoubtedly then you will know Who carries the elephant's water Is certain to get in the show. —Brooklyn Life.

ITALIAN PRUNES---2 LBS. FOR 25c

The celebrated Union Brand of Italian Prunes is different from any other brand, because in most other brands the Prunes are smaller and less "meaty," while in the Union Brand the fruit is large and of a good flavor.

For instance: The ordinary prunes run 90 to 100 to the pound, while in the Union Brand they run but 40 Prunes to the pound.

The point is, in common Prunes you get 90 to 100 stones with a thick covering on them, whereas in the Italian Prunes you get 40 stones with a thick covering. Do you not get more prune meat in the "40 stone kind" than in the "100 stone kind"?

We sell the Union Brand Italian Prunes at two pounds for 25c or 25 pound box for $2.75. Note these good values also, Strawberries (extra good) 20c a can. Raspberries, 15c a can. Blueberries, 18c a can. Evaporated Peaches, 20c a pound. Include some of these in your next order. Telephone 217-4.
